ANNUAL MEETING, JUNE 16TH, 1944
THE ART GALLERY OF TORONTO
REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

CANADA is the 6th Exporting Nation of the World and the 3rd Trading Nation. She will come out of this war with greatly increased prestige. Let us all go forward together to keep the flag flying on the cultural front. We must remember that no purely pastoral country ever became great, and that the abstract things of life are among the greatest treasures of our race.

Your directors have felt for some time that the scope of the Gallery's activities should be widened and the number of officers increased.

We propose to have a meeting at an early date when the new officers will be allocated to different committees.

We are glad to welcome them to the board of the Art Gallery.

Since the outbreak of war in 1939, we have carried on the activities of the Gallery without interruption. For this we are largely indebted to the many financial and industrial firms who have so generously aided us.

On behalf of the Gallery, allow me to again thank them.

Last year 22 Canadian paintings, 14 drawings and 3 prints were purchased.

Two paintings have been presented to the Gallery, "The Dance," by Fantin Latour and a portrait by Moroni.

The years of 1943 and 1944 have seen the extension of the influence of the Art Gallery far beyond the confines of the City. We can truthfully say, that we are not in any sense a local institution but rather, a provincial and national one.

Our outstanding effort last year was the preparation for the Allied Merchant Seamen's Exhibition in February of this year, in which we were jointly interested and helped by the Navy League of Canada. The attendance from February 4th to March 12th inclusive was 57,199. Of these 8,770 were school children. There were 12,443 catalogues sold. More people attended the Exhibition at night than in the daytime.

After deducting all expenses we turned over to the Navy League of Canada the proceeds of the Exhibition which amounted to $25,018.12, which I think you all agree was well worth while, and a great satisfaction to all the members and workers of the Navy League and Art Gallery, who contributed to the great success of this Exhibition. People came from all parts of Canada to visit the Gallery.

It will not be possible for me to mention everybody who worked so hard to make the Exhibition a success. However, I should like to mention Lady Kemp, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Band, Miss Elsinore Burns, and the Sponsors' Committee, our Curator, Mr. Martin Baldwin and the Clerical Staff of the Gallery, our Treasurer, Mr. William Hay, who was outstanding in his courtesy to out of town guests, and our Guards, who also worked overtime.

As you know we have many travelling Exhibitions and I think you will be interested in knowing a personal experience that your President had at one of the largest plants in the British Empire, 7,000 employees, 85% of them women —The General Engineering Company on Dawes Road, Scarboro.

I was invited to visit the plant by Mr. Harold S. Pheiffer to see an exhibition of paintings by Wilfred Beny, of Medicine Hat, a young painter I am much interested in. A very smart and beautiful chauffeur called for me in the morning and drove me to Dawes Road.

Luncheon was in a large cafeteria and the Exhibition was in the Lounge, just off the cafeteria. Easy chairs and tables, a crowded lounge, and walls lined with pictures, gave an atmosphere of comfort and gaiety that was noticeable.

The women members of the plant came from all parts of Canada and I was particularly impressed with the high average of beauty and smartness of the employees.

Mr. Pheiffer is to be congratulated on creating a cultural atmosphere in a great industrial plant. We wish to call the attention of the Hon. Mr. Drew and the members of his government to the importance of the Art Gallery as a centre from which radiates a growing appreciation of beauty.

In our annual report for the year 1942, I outlined for you the birth of a new movement in the Canadian Art World; namely the Silk Screen method of color reproduction developed by Messrs. Sampson and Matthews of Toronto.

I felt at the time that this movement originated by Dr. Alex Jackson and Mr. A. J. Casson both of the Toronto Art Gallery would develop into a movement of great value to Canadian Art.

That I was right in my estimation of the value of this movement has been abundantly proved.

When our honorary president, The Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey paid us a visit last year, he told me that in his opinion there was nothing that had been done in Canada to stimulate an interest in Canadian Painting, both in Canada and in England comparable with the silk screen color reproductions of Canadian pictures.

That this movement has grown by leaps and bounds is well known in the local art world. May I be allowed to give you some figures to illustrate the importance of this movement both from the artistic and national point of view, also to indicate to you the birth and growth of a new Canadian Industry.

The first prints were 7,500 pictures which were delivered free of all cost to the men in the Armed Services. Of these, 3,000 were for the Army in Canada, 2,250 for the Air Force, 750 for the Navy. One thousand five hundred were sent to the Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey for distribution to the camps of Canadian soldiers in England.

Realizing the value of these from an educational standpoint, the director of the National Gallery, Mr. McCurry, ordered and paid for a further quantity which it was intended would be sold to the schools.

The director of education for the British Army, J. B. Bickersteth, warden of Hart House, Toronto, seeing these in England requested a number for the camps of the British troops, with the result that a public spirited Toronto citizen, (J. S. McLean) donated money sufficient to send 2,000 of these to England. Other funds have just been contributed to Mr. McCurry which permit of an additional 1,000 of these being sent to the R.A.F. in England.

This makes a total of 10,500 pictures which have been distributed without cost to the troops in Canada and in England.

Even this large quantity has not filled the need. At the present time there are additional requests from the Armed Services totalling more than 3,000 pictures. Thus there will be shortly available 3,000 more pictures to be shipped, making over 13,000 in all.

I think you will all agree this is a remarkable tribute to Canadian painting and a triumph for all those concerned in the production of these prints.

JOHN M. LYLE, President of The Art Gallery

SUMMARY OF COMMITTEE REPORTS

The activities of the Gallery revolve around our collection and our exhibitions, which, together with our educational work, form the basis of our programme. In 1943 there were eight exhibitions of Canadian art, nine exhibitions from such varied places as Great Britain, Latin-America, Mexico, United States and Australia and the work of ten Canadian artists was shown in the Print Room. The attendance was 101,197, an increase of about 8,000 over the year before. For the second year, a reproduction of one of the Gallery's Canadian paintings, this time "Early Spring, Quebec" by A. Y. Jackson, was published and distributed to members who wished to have it. We are very grateful for two gifts of pictures—"The Dance" by Fantin Latour in honour of the late Flight Lieutenant John Rolph, R.C.A.F., and the other a portrait by Moroni, and a fine piece of Chinese silk embroidery. All these gifts are anonymous. No purchases were made of works of art other than Canadian, of which we acquired some forty items. In the accompanying folder are details of the accessions for the year.

Our Saturday Morning Classes have continued as actively as ever and branch classes have been established and maintained in the East and West End Y.W.C.A.s. The Children's Art Centre has maintained its programme of classes for children's groups, members' children, adults, teachers and leaders. While the number of these classes remains approximately constant, their make-up is constantly being varied. The Ontario College of Education and the Institute of Child Study have both used our classes for educational purposes during the year. Our teachers' classes are being used by people not only from Toronto, but from the whole of Ontario, and it should be realized that while these activities take place in Toronto, they are effective throughout the province.

We have continued our Sunday afternoon concerts during the season, which have resulted in a marked increase in attendance on that day. The Church Friendship League co-operated with us in providing tea for the members of the Armed Forces, which was greatly appreciated, and our thanks are due for their faithfulness and efficiency. Our general programme of talks, demonstrations and films was continued in a modified form, concentrating more and more on Saturdays and Sundays, which increasingly are the only days on which the public is free to attend.

The Gallery has always maintained a number of circulating exhibitions. This year marked a new step in the organization of a series of exhibitions of greater importance, several of which were borrowed from the Museum of Modern Art for circulation purposes. In the three latter months of the year, these exhibitions were shown at some fourteen places and each of them was fully booked for the whole season. Apart from these, the number of exhibitions circulated was ninety-five and the number of collections of slides for lecturing purposes was fifty-nine.

There are now nearly 3,000 volumes in the library and some 300 pamphlets. In spite of the fact that our librarian is only on part-time, the library is being used increasingly by visitors for reference purposes.

Our thanks are due to the Commissioner of Parks and the Chief of Police for their co-operation in the maintenance of the park and in the control of traffic during the year.

In the continuance of our policy, the Octagon and Long Galleries were redecorated, leaving only the Leonard Gallery and Rotunda and the E. R. Wood Gallery to be done.

The members of the Gallery were all greatly shocked and saddened at the news of the death in September of Mr. W. J. Downard, who had been our Superintendent for so many years. His faithfulness, efficiency and courtesy contributed greatly to the work of the Gallery and he will be sadly missed. Our sympathy goes out to his family. No appointment has been made in his place. Mr. W. Lancaster has been appointed foreman following his death.

Our thanks are hereby expressed to our faithful membership, which stood at 1491 on December 31st, 1943, a net loss of 66 in the year. We had 63 new Annual members against a loss of 122. We regret the loss by death of Mrs. J. S. Burnside, a Founder member of the Gallery, Mr. N. L. Nathanson and Lady Woods, Benefactor members, and Dr. H. Wilberforce Aikins, Dr. J. H. Elliott, Mr. C. E. Calvert, Mr. George F. McGuire, Flight Lieut. John Rolph, Mr. Arthur W. Adams, Mrs. Henry Brock, Mrs. John Croft, Mr. A. S. King, Mr. S. J. Mackie, Dr. and Mrs. A. Primrose, and Mr. Britton Osler, all Life members. We extend our sympathy also to the families of our members who have suffered a similar loss during the year.

In spite of the great volume of other news and the shortage of paper, our activities have been very well publicized in the press and the radio. Our thanks are specially due to the three daily papers, the Telegram, Globe and Mail and Daily Star, and to Saturday Night, as well as to the papers throughout the whole of Ontario who published many items of interest on the Gallery's work.

The report of our finances is summarized in the balance sheet, which is set out in this report.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

In a number of resolutions the Members of The Art Gallery of Toronto expressed their thanks and appreciation to those who contributed funds to the Gallery's maintenance, or to the Gallery's programmes during the year; to those who made gifts or loans to the Gallery; to the members of the Executive Committee for their work on the Gallery's behalf; to the staff of the Gallery; to the City of Toronto Parks Department and Commissioner Chambers and to his staff for their care of the Gallery grounds and gardens, and to the Chief of Police and the Officials of the Toronto Police Force for their services when requested during the year.
